Parents & Pastries

Sunday, May 1 is our next FIRST SUNDAY. The topic this Sunday will be How Do We Talk About That With Our Children? There are some conversations we all know are a part of parenting, like the birds and the bees. But these days, it seems like there are many more conversations for which we may not be fully equipped. What are some conversations that you need help with? Where does the church stand in the midst of these new conversations? What difference would it make if your child knew and believed who he or she is in God's eyes? Thomas Blunt will start us off with a conversation he's had with his sons. Join us right after worship in the Fellowship Hall. Bagels/donuts/coffee/juice/childcare and lots of love provided.

As you journey through this study, you will be inspired by the backstories of these people of faith who show us that even minor players can teach major lessons.

Cost of Workbook is $5. Email (dabbott@hbpcusa.org) or call Debbie Abbott to reserve yours today!
