

Dying Well
Luke 2:21-33
December 26, 2021

- I. Introduction: Daniel Auber (1782-1871)
- II. Simeon's death (Lk. 2:26-28)
 - A. He cannot die (2:26)
 - B. Now he can die (2:29-30)
 - C. His reaction to death (2:28)
 - D. This is dying well
- III. How does Simeon do this? (2:25-29)
 - A. "Righteous and devout" (2:25)
 - B. "Looking forward to the consolation" (2:25)
 - C. The Holy Spirit (2:26, 27)
- IV. How do we die well?
 - A. Have a right relationship with God
 - B. Devote yourself to God
 - C. Wait on God
 - D. Rely on the Holy Spirit
- V. Conclusion: Daniel Auber, "Dona Nobis Pacem" (1828)