CALL TO CONFESSION 1 John 1:8-9 Tod McVey
If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. But if we confess our sins, God who is faithful and just will forgive our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Some of us, Lord, have lost our sense of your presence. Yes—we have gathered here in this church building, and we may have greeted each other with a smile when we entered—but there is an emptiness, a sense of loss within us. We haven't prayed much lately; but when we did, it didn't seem like we were getting through. We suspect that the one who has wandered is not you, but ourselves. As the Good Shepherd, seek us out, call us back from our wanderings, and restore us to the security of your fold. . . .
(moments of silence)

ASSURANCE Psalm 65:3
When deeds of iniquity overwhelm us, you forgive our transgressions.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.
