Our guest pastor today, Rev. Sarah Locke, is the pastor for Jacksonville Campus Ministry, an ecumenical ministry that serves the colleges and universities in the Jacksonville area. Her passion has always been campus ministry and the time when young adults begin to ask big questions and dive deeper into their faith communities. Although she was ordained Lutheran, she grew up in the Presbyterian Church, the Catholic Church, the Lutheran Church, and was trained for ministry by a Methodist theologian. Thus her love for ecumenism! She now serves JCM during the week and is the assisting priest at Episcopal Church of the Redeemer. She and her Lutheran pastor husband have two young kids who enjoy running them ragged day and night.

1st & 3rd Wednesday Night Program

IT'S NEVER TOO LATE TO JOIN!

This year we've been falling more in love with God through the amazing Book of Hebrews, but it's changing. Wednesday, April 17, we're meeting again to learn about a new phase in the book and a change in the strategy of the writer. As we shift, it's a great time to get onboard with the study. One more change: In May we'll meet the 2nd and 4th Wednesdays of the month, so May 8 and 22-same time, 7 pm, and same place, Fellowship Hall. Hope to see you there!

A Festival of Hymns

June 2
4:00 pm

Come join the choir for our Festival of Hymns!

- No long-term commitment required
- A chance to sing with other choirs from around the city
- Be part of something bigger than just us (goal 50+ singers)
- Possibly singing with an orchestra!
- Hosted at our church

We will rehearse weekly on Wednesday evenings at 6:30. Music will be provided along with recordings of each song that are part-specific. There will be two mass rehearsals here at HBPC with the other churches performing. Dress rehearsal is on June 1 and the performance on June 2.
